MISSION STATEMENT

Drawn together by our common bonds of Faith, Hope and Love, we strive to serve God and one another as members of a parish family under the patronage of Saint Henry. With ardent faith we celebrate the Eucharist, sharing the mystery of Christ's presence in our Holy Communion. Compelled by the love of Christ, we reach out beyond the walls of our church and minister, not only to members who are unable physically to attend and participate actively in the Liturgy, but also to people near and far, who need our services.

ARCHDIOCESE OF MIAMI
Office of the Archbishop

October 17th, 2021

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

In April 2021, Pope Francis announced the next General Assembly of the Synod of Bishops: "For a synodal Church: communion, participation and mission." Since its establishment during the Second Vatican Council, the Synod of Bishops has provided a forum for the forward progress of our Church. Recognizing that the Church today must exist "permanently in a state of mission," the Holy Father has stated that the Synod of Bishops "must increasingly become a privileged instrument for listening to the People of God." (Episcopalis Communio) With the convocation of this XVI Synod of Bishops, therefore, the voice of the People of God will be solicited and heard in a new way.

Our Archdiocesan synodal process will commence in communion with the Universal Church this Sunday, October 17, 2021, and close on the feast of Pentecost, June 5, 2022. During this time, every parish and all the People of God are called upon to participate in the consultation process, so that we may "gather the wealth of the experiences" of our local church (Vademecum 31). Not only will we be exploring the themes, challenges, and gifts of the Universal Church as one family "journeying together," but we will also be exploring our own local initiatives in light of the Archdiocese of Miami's 2014-2016 Pastoral Plan, "Disciples in Faith, Missionaries of Hope," and seeking to establish renewed priorities for the upcoming five years.

Saint John Paul II said that "the secret of the success of the Synod, as of every other ecclesial event and initiative, is in fact prayer," and accordingly, I ask that you pray for the Synod here and around the world, "so that it might become an authentic event of grace." I will be taking an active role in this diocesan phase of the Synod and ask the same of each of you. I encourage you to fully participate possible in your own parish consultative session and to provide your voice to the synodal process.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Most Reverend Thomas G. Wenski

ARCHDIOCESE OF MIAMI

Office of the Archbishop

17 octubre 2021

Queridos hermanos y hermanas en Cristo:

En abril del 2021, el Papa Francisco anunció la próxima Asamblea General del Sínodo de los Obispos: "Por una Iglesia sinodal: comunión, participación y misión". Desde su creación durante el Segundo Concilio Vaticano, el Sínodo de los Obispos ha proporcionado un foro para el progreso avanzado de nuestra Iglesia. Reconociendo que la Iglesia de hoy debe existir "permanentemente en un estado de misión", el Santo Padre ha declarado que el Sínodo de los Obispos "debe convertirse cada vez más en un instrumento privilegiado para escuchar al Pueblo de Dios". (Episcopalis Communio) Convocatoria de este XVI Sínodo de los Obispos, por lo tanto, la voz del Pueblo de Dios será solicitada y escuchada de una nueva manera.

Nuestro proceso sinodal arquidiocesano comenzará en comunión con la Iglesia Universal este Domingo 17 de octubre de 2021 y cerrará el día de la fiesta de Pentecostés el 5 de junio de 2022. Durante este tiempo, cada parroquia y todo el Pueblo de Dios serán llamados a participar en el proceso de consulta, para que así podamos "reunir la riqueza de las experiencias" de nuestra iglesia local (Vadécum 31). No sólo exploraremos los temas, desafíos y dones de la Iglesia Universal como una sola familia "viajando juntos", pero también exploraremos nuestras propias iniciativas locales a la luz del Plan Pastoral 2014-2016 de la Arquidiócesis de Miami, "Discípulos en la Fe, Misioneros de Esperanza", y buscando establecer prioridades renovadas para los próximos cinco años.

San Juan Pablo II dijo que "el secreto del éxito del Sínodo, como de cualquier otro acontecimiento eclesial e iniciativa, es de hecho oración", y en consecuencia, os pido que recéis por el Sínodo aquí y en todo el mundo, "para que se convierta en un auténtico acontecimiento de gracia". Voy a tomar un papel activo en esta fase diocesana del Sínodo y pedir lo mismo a cada uno de ustedes. Te animo para participar plenamente en las sesiones de consulta en sus parroquias y así dar voz al proceso sinodal.

Atentamente suyo en Cristo,

Reverendísimo Thomas G. Wenski
Arzobispo de Miami
