MISSION STATEMENT

Drawn together by our common bonds of Faith, Hope and Love, we strive to serve God and one another as members of a parish family under the patronage of Saint Henry. With ardent faith we celebrate the Eucharist, sharing the mystery of Christ's presence in our Holy Communion. Compelled by the love of Christ, we reach out beyond the walls of our church and minister, not only to members who are unable physically to attend and participate actively in the Liturgy, but also to people near and far, who need our services.

When Christmas Falls on a Saturday (Excerpted from the Archdiocese of Miami’s website on December 14, 2021)

If you go to Christmas Mass on Saturday, do you still have to go to Sunday Mass the next day? Often there’s a few days’ gap between Christmas Day and the Sunday following, but this year Christmas falls on a Saturday, and there is no gap between Christmas Day and the subsequent Sunday Masses, where attendance is also obligatory. Catholics fulfill the holy day of obligation for Christmas, the commemoration of the birth of Jesus Christ, at Christmas Eve vigil Masses and at any Masses celebrated on Christmas Day. Christmas is a holy day of obligation regardless of the day of the week it falls. As a result, Catholics are obligated to attend Mass for Christmas, either at a Christmas Eve vigil Mass or Christmas Day Mass, and on Sunday, Dec. 26, the feast of the Holy Family, which will be celebrated solely on Sunday this year.
