MISSION STATEMENT

Drawn together by our common bonds of Faith, Hope and Love, we strive to serve God and one another as members of a parish family under the patronage of Saint Henry. With ardent faith we celebrate the Eucharist, sharing the mystery of Christ's presence in our Holy Communion. Compelled by the love of Christ, we reach out beyond the walls of our church and minister, not only to members who are unable physically to attend and participate actively in the Liturgy, but also to people near and far, who need our services.

From the Pastor

"I bring you news of great joy, a joy to be shared by the whole people. Today in the city of David a Savior has been born to you: he is Christ the Lord" (cf. Luke 2: 10-11).

An Angel from heaven appeared to the shepherds who were tending their sheep in the dead silence of the night with the news that a great mystery had taken place. What was foretold by the prophets about the birth of the Son of God by the Virgin had become an accomplished fact. More Angels descended from heaven and joined the bearer of the glad tiding and together they sang in exultation: "Glory to God in the highest heaven, and on earth peace to people of good will". The shepherds hurried to Bethlehem, and seeing everything in conformity with the description given by the Angel, worshipped the newborn Christ. Then they went to announce and share the good news with all the people.

As we celebrate the mystery of the birth of Jesus the Christ, let us worship Him after the example of the shepherds. After the celebration in church, let us go and share the good news of our salvation in Christ with all the people we meet not only today but as long as we remain in him.

Even though I am not here with you today, I seize this opportunity to welcome all who join in celebration this weekend and also a warm welcome back to those "snowbirds" who have traveled back to South Florida this year. I thank parishioners and others who have sent me goodwill messages and gifts. A special Thank You to all who have contributed and continue to contribute to the well-being of St. Henry Parish and to all who have done many good things for the Church.

On behalf of myself, Fr Hector Perez, St Henry Church staff and ministers, I extend heartfelt wishes for a joyous Christmas and a happy and very healthy New Year.

When Christmas Falls on a Saturday (Excerpted from the Archdiocese of Miami’s website on December 14, 2021)

If you go to Christmas Mass on Saturday, do you still have to go to Sunday Mass the next day? Often there’s a few days’ gap between Christmas Day and the Sunday following, but this year Christmas falls on a Saturday, and there is no gap between Christmas Day and the subsequent Sunday Masses, where attendance is also obligatory. Catholics fulfill the holy day of obligation for Christmas, the commemoration of the birth of Jesus Christ, at Christmas Eve vigil Masses and at any Masses celebrated on Christmas Day. Christmas is a holy day of obligation regardless of the day of the week it falls. As a result, Catholics are obligated to attend Mass for Christmas, either at a Christmas Eve vigil Mass or Christmas Day Mass, and on Sunday, Dec. 26, the feast of the Holy Family, which will be celebrated solely on Sunday this year.

Del Párroco

“Les traigo una noticia de gran alegría, una alegría para ser compartida por todo el pueblo. Hoy, en la ciudad de David, os ha nacido un Salvador: Cristo, el Señor ”(cf. Lc 2, 10-11).

Un ángel del cielo se apareció a los pastores que estaban apacentando sus ovejas en el silencio sepulcral de la noche con la noticia de que se había producido un gran misterio. Lo que habían predicho los profetas sobre el nacimiento del Hijo de Dios por la Virgen se había convertido en un hecho consumado. Más ángeles descendieron del cielo y se unieron al portador de la buena nueva y juntos cantaron con júbilo: “Gloria a Dios en las alturas, y paz en la tierra a los hombres de buena voluntad”. Los pastores se apresuraron a Belén y, viendo todo conforme a la descripción dada por el Ángel, adoraron al Cristo recién nacido. Luego fueron a anunciar y compartir la buena noticia con toda la gente.

Mientras celebramos el misterio del nacimiento de Jesucristo, adorémoslo según el ejemplo de los pastores. Después de la celebración en la iglesia, vayamos y compartamos las buenas nuevas de nuestra salvación en Cristo con todas las personas que encontremos no solo hoy, sino siempre que permanezcamos en él.

Aunque no estoy aquí con ustedes hoy, aprovecho esta oportunidad para dar la bienvenida a todos los que se unen a la celebración este fin de semana y también una cálida bienvenida a esos “pájaros de la nieve” que han viajado de regreso al sur de Florida este año. Agradezco a los feligreses y a otras personas que me han enviado mensajes de buena voluntad y regalos. Un agradecimiento especial a todos los que han contribuido y continúan contribuyendo al bienestar de la parroquia de St. Henry y a todos los que han hecho muchas cosas buenas por la Iglesia.

En mi nombre, el P. Héctor Pérez, el personal y los ministros de la Iglesia de St. Henry, extendo mis más sinceros deseos de una feliz Navidad y un feliz y muy saludable Año Nuevo, a todos ustedes.

Padre Francis
