MISSION STATEMENT

Drawn together by our common bonds of Faith, Hope and Love, we strive to serve God and one another as members of a parish family under the patronage of Saint Henry. With ardent faith we celebrate the Eucharist, sharing the mystery of Christ's presence in our Holy Communion. Compelled by the love of Christ, we reach out beyond the walls of our church and minister, not only to members who are unable physically to attend and participate actively in the Liturgy, but also to people near and far, who need our services.

This weekend—Special Collection for the Church in Haiti

The August 14th earthquake brought devastation to Haiti's southwest peninsula and has affected people in three dioceses. And, of course, Tropical Storm Grace's passage on August 16 has aggravated an already desperate situation. As Bishop Joseph Gontrand Decoste of Jeremie told me, scores of parish churches, chapels, schools, and clinics have been razed. Rectories have been turned into rubble, like the residence of Les Cayes' Cardinal Chibly Langlois which collapsed injuring him and killing a priest and two employees. When everybody goes home, the Church will remain with her people. The people are counting on the Church. Help the Haitian Church serve her people.

Este fin de semana - Colecta especial para la Iglesia en Haití

El terremoto del 14 de agosto trajo devastación al suroeste de la península de Haití y ha afectado a personas en tres diócesis. Y, por supuesto, el paso de la tormenta tropical Grace el 16 de agosto ha agravado una situación ya desesperada. Como dijo el obispo Joseph Gontrand Decoste de Jeremie, en docenas de parroquias han quedado arrasadas las iglesias, capillas, escuelas y clínicas. Las rectorías se han convertido en escombros, como la residencia del cardenal de Cayes, Chibly Langlois, que se derrumbó hiriéndolo y matando a un sacerdote y dos empleados. Cuando todos se vayan a casa, la Iglesia permanecerá con su pueblo. La gente cuenta con la Iglesia universal. Ayudemos a la Iglesia de Haití que sirve a su pueblo.
