MISSION STATEMENT

Drawn together by our common bonds of Faith, Hope and Love, we strive to serve God and one another as members of a parish family under the patronage of Saint Henry. With ardent faith we celebrate the Eucharist, sharing the mystery of Christ's presence in our Holy Communion. Compelled by the love of Christ, we reach out beyond the walls of our church and minister, not only to members who are unable physically to attend and participate actively in the Liturgy, but also to people near and far, who need our services.

19TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"I am the living bread that came down from heaven;
whoever eats this bread will live forever;
and the bread that I will give is my flesh for the life of the world."

Jn 6:51

"Yo soy el pan vivo que ha bajado del cielo; el que coma de este pan vivirá para siempre. Y el pan que yo les voy a dar es mi carne para que el mundo tenga vida".

Jn 6, 51

19° DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO

August 8, 2021
19th Sunday in Ordinary Time

The main point of doctrine in this part of our Lord's discourse, as given by St. John, is the necessity for belief in Christ who has come down from heaven. It is only in the last verse of today's text that Christ explicitly states that he is about to give his own very body as their spiritual food to those who believe in him. The description of himself as "bread from heaven" and the vital difference between the effect of this bread and the manna given to their fathers in the desert, are a definite preparation for the announcement of the doctrine of the Eucharist.

However, before they could even think of accepting this teaching on the Eucharist they had first to accept Christ as divine, as the Son of God. This was not easy for Jews, for whom strict monotheism was the center of their faith. To admit that Christ was God would at first sight seem like admitting two gods. Secondly, even though Christ had worked extraordinary miracles, to all appearances he was still a mere man—and the prophets of old had worked miracles. True, Christ was evidently claiming to be more than a prophet; he claimed that he alone had seen the Father, that he had come from the Father. This claim of equality with the Father would be sheer blasphemy if it were not true.

Nineteen centuries of Christian history can be shrugged off as easily as that by those who will not believe. If certain statements do not fit in with preconceived ideas then these statements are false; if certain facts do not agree with history, as the unbelievers understand history, then these facts never happened. So man's limited, finite mind remains the sole judge and arbiter of all truth. Of all the knowledge a human being can acquire on this earth, the above facts are the most essential and important. Any other knowledge is of temporary value. The knowledge our Christian faith gives us concerns eternity and our journey toward it.

God did not put us on earth and leave us on our own with nowhere to go except to the grave. He sent his beloved Son on earth. He made us heirs to heaven and left to us, in his Church, all the instruction and aids we need to reach our inheritance. The unbelievers and free-thinkers may feel that they are free to do what they will here on earth, but we know that we have been given the freedom of the children of God for all eternity, if only we live according to the faith given us.

-Excerpted from The Sunday Readings by Fr. Kevin O'Sullivan, O.F.M.

8 de Agosto de 2021
Domingo XIX del tiempo ordinario.

LA HOSTIA NO ES JESÚS SINO JESÚS ES LA HOSTIA

La primera lectura de hoy, como siempre, se relaciona con el Evangelio. El proceso de conversión es un camino largo, como recorrió Elías y lo pudo hacer porque fue alimentado con el Pan de Vida y solo así "con la fuerza de aquel alimento, caminó cuarenta días y cuarenta noches hasta el Horeb, el monte de Dios".

Elías sintió deseos de morir y dijo: 'Basta ya, Señor. Quítame la vida, pues yo no valgo más que mis padres'; había perdido la Esperanza, pero conservó la Fe; Elías hizo la prueba de comer el pan bajado del cielo y vio "lo bueno que es el Señor".

El Evangelio de hoy, Jesús se dirige especialmente aquellos que buscan encontrar a Dios en milagros y en hechos excepcionales. Dios no está solo en los hechos puntuales de la vida, sino en todas las cosas bellas de la vida, especialmente en el amor y servicio a los demás, ya que Dios es "el amor".

Nuestro Dios es el Dios de la Vida (con mayúsculas), es el Pan de Vida. En el Evangelio no se nos habla de resurrección, sino no morir. Él es "el pan que ha bajado del cielo para que, quien lo coma, no muera. Yo soy el pan vivo que ha bajado del cielo". Nos habla de una Vida a la que no la afecta la muerte biológica. Es el alimento de nuestra Vida espiritual que no morirá, en otras palabras, la eternidad empieza aquí y ahora; no es un pan que nos cae desde lo que comúnmente llamamos cielo, sino que viene de Dios, que se nos da en el sacramento de la Eucaristía, para vivir de la manera que Jesús nos enseñó.

En cada Eucaristía, se nos da de comer este pan: el pan de la Palabra y el pan Eucarístico, recordando siempre que la HOSTIA NO ES JESÚS SINO JESÚS ES LA HOSTIA, que no es el pan que se convierte en Jesús sino por el contrario es Jesús quien se convierte en Hostia, para que nosotros nos convirtamos en un pan que da vida a otros. Solo así es un auténtico pan de vida: El pan de vida es verdadera vida si da vida a otros.
